

CRP 211 CITY IN HISTORY

Course Code:	1210211
METU Credit (Theoretical-Laboratory hours/week):	3(3-0)
ECTS Credit:	4.0
Department:	City and Regional Planning
Language of Instruction:	English
Level of Study:	Undergraduate
Course Coordinator:	Prof.Dr. Burcu Erciyas
Offered Semester:	Fall Semestre

Course Content:

General introduction to theoretical and methodological problems in historical analysis of cities and urbanization; the supply of changing spatial and physical pattern of cities in relation to changing socio-economic structure of Mesopotamia, Egypt, Anatolia, the Greek and the Roman worlds.

Syllabus:

Week One City/Civilization: Theoretical background, Neolithic settlements

Week Two Earliest Cities: Uruk and Lower Mesopotamia

Week Three Cities of Indus Valley, Egypt and the New World, Anatolia, a general background on the type of data, environment, population

Week Four Bronze Age Cities of Anatolia

Week Five Bronze Age Cities of Anatolia

Week Six Mid-term Exam

Week Seven Iron Age Cities of Anatolia

Week Eight Bronze and Iron Ages in the Aegean: Minoans, Myceneans and Greek Colonization

Week Nine The Greek Polis :Archaic and Classical Periods

Week Ten II. Midterm Exam

Week Eleven The Hellenistic Urbanization

Week Twelve The Roman City: Rome

Week Thirteen The Roman City: The Provinces